Held to Prove Hypothesis of Stipher.

Chicago, March 23 .- Important detalls of recent discoveries concerning the nebular hypothesis of solar systems by Dr. V. D. Stipher, of the Lowell Observatory, Flagstaff, Ariz. were made know here to-night on the arrival of Professor Percival Lowell on his way to New York. The nebular theory of La Place, which in recent years has been somewhat discredited in certain astronomical quarters, received a strong corroboration, according to a statement issued from observations at Flagstaff, which show that numerous nebular shine by reflected

IN NELSON COUNTY.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Aften, Va., March 23.—A murder eccurred near Greenfield post-office, Nelson County, to-day about noon. A dispute arose over a dog between Jake Johnson and Albert Harris, both colored, at the latter's house. Harris got his shotgun and fired the contents into Johnson's body. Johnson not falling to the ground, Harris got his pistol and fired a bullet into Johnson's heart, killing him instantly. Harris went to a negro church, informing the crowd of what he had, chalming it was in self-defense, and that Johnson's pistol was by the side of the dead man. Harris was immediately arrested, charged with murder. Both negroes have fam-ilies and are powerful men physically.

Revivals Past and to Come Recent revivals and evangelical services in churches of the several denominations in this city have resulted membership but in the elevation of the membership but in the elevation of the moral tone of the community. And this is noticeable among the colored as well as among the white element. The evangelistic meetings in progress for some days at Tabb Street Presbyterian and Washington.

Arrangements are now being made for a series of great revival meetings, to be begun on the first Sunday in April. The Rey. Luther B. Bridges, a preacher of great force and eloquence, will conduct these meetings. The musie will be under the Joyful music in all the churches to-day acclaimed the glad Eastertide. The weather was fair and the congregations large.

It is expected that a number of the churches in this city will send representatives to the Laymen's Missionary Movement convention, to be held in Richmond this week. The Petersburg churches have shown active interest in the movement. Miss Leonora Randolph Roper is en-tertaining a house party of friends dur-ing the Easter holidays at her home on
